Directors' Meeting

The Board of Directors of S.A.D. 44 met in regular session at the Andover Elementary School on Monday evening of this week.

The Board accepted the resignation of Lindley Wieden as Telstar Guidance Counselor at the end of the current year. Mr. Wieden has been at the local high school for the past two years. Authorization was granted to post a vacancy in the position.

Permission of the Directors was granted for the use of two buses to transport fourth grade students of the District to the Shrine Circus in Lewiston.

The Board approved the format of warrant articles for the annual District Budget Meeting. The date of the annual meeting has yet to be set, but will probably be sometime in May.

The State Board of Education's Guidelines describing the procedures necessary to change the method of the delivery of vocational education to students of S.A.D. 44 were discussed by the Board. Also reviewed was a proposed draft of a local alternative to the present N.O.V.A. program.

Dr. Wayne Gersen, Superintendent of Schools, reported that the Northern Oxford Vocational Area will hold a public hearing in the Telstar Lecture Hall on Monday evening, April 12, at seven o'clock concerning the desirability of proceeding with a proposed N.O.V.A. building project at the Rumford Center School. There will also be a public hearing at the Telstar Lecture Hall on Thursday evening, April 15, at seven o'clock.

MUNDT-ALLEN POST & UNIT SPONSORING PROGRAMS TO AID YOUNG PEOPLE

Mundt-Allen American Legion Post and Unit #81 will be sponsoring, in April, programs designed to aid the young people of the area. Entitled "April Incentive: Children and Youth," the project will include two functions scheduled for Friday, April 16: a hearing screening and a drug/alcohol abuse program.

The hearing screening will be done at the Bethel Area Health Center from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The Center is equipped with an audiometer, hearing booth and trained personnel to perform hearing testing. If a hearing loss is detected, the individual will be referred to his/her regular physician or the Health Center to evaluate the hearing problem. A hearing loss may be caused by a number of things—build up of wax in the ear, a cold, recent exposure to loud noise, etc. Therefore, it is important that people understand that this is screening only and further evaluation will be necessary to determine if any hearing loss is temporary or permanent. Because of the difficulty in determining a hearing problem in children under five through screening only, this program will be limited to children five and older and adults.

The Drug/Alcohol program is also scheduled for April 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, Bethel. Guest speakers will be Trooper Percy Turner, Maine State Police; Sgt. Bill Williams, Oxford County Sheriff's Department; Becky Hardy, Bethel Area Health Center; and Ben Conant, State Liquor Inspector and a member of the Drug/Alcohol Program at Oxford Hills. Also available will be information on new legislation regarding this subject, supplied by State Representative Karen Brown. Following the speakers, a panel question and answer period will be held. A special invitation is extended to the faculty and students of Gould Academy and Telstar Regional High School, the Senior Citizens and members of civic organizations, as well as the general public.

JACKSON-SILVER POST

FROM THE bethel town office

To a great extent municipal functions are governed by laws indexed in a series of books called the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated. During each session of the legislature, laws are written, amended or repealed. When one reviews the number of bills acted on in each session of the legislature, it is apparent that many of them will influence what is done at the local level and, before providing feedback, a determination must be made as to their effect. Two such legislative actions are discussed below.

Last year, the legislature enacted truck fee legislation, subsequently declared unconstitutional, that created a $3 fee for Maine trucks and a $40 fee for out-of-state trucks. The current legislature is working on a new highway use permit system that is expected to pass this week as an emergency measure to resolve the highway funding problem. The new measure provides for the issuance of a fuel use identification decal and calls for a $10 annual fee for all vehicles required to file reports or obtain a license for the gasoline road tax, use fuel tax or interstate bus motor fuel tax. This includes all diesel trucks, all for-hire trucks and all other private trucks over 20,000 pounds.

Winter Returns!!!

The ravages of winter weather returned to the Bethel area, Oxford County, Maine and the North-east on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Starting Tuesday afternoon a hard-to-measure snowstorm accompanied by high winds left a deposit of snow of at least 10 inches with the temperature hovering around the 10° mark.

The schools of District #44 were closed on Wednesday and Thursday due to hazardous road conditions. Many other events in the area were either postponed or cancelled on Wednesday. The storm also delayed the U. S. Mail with Bethel's "morning" mail on Wednesday becoming the "afternoon" mail as the truck didn't arrive from Auburn until during the noon hour.

CRESCENT PARK SCHOOL'S SPRING CONCERT AT TELSTAR WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14

The students of Crescent Park School under the direction of their music teacher, Miss Susan Mitchell, will give a Spring Concert at Telstar Regional High School on Wednesday, April 14, at 7 p.m.

The Parent Advisory Committee of Crescent Park School is sponsoring a bake sale at the Bethel IGA Store on Saturday, April 10, beginning at 9 a.m. The group will meet at the school library on Thursday, April 8, at 7 p.m. All parents are invited.

BASKETBALL MARATHON AT TELSTAR BEGINS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The boys basketball team at Telstar begins its marathon game at three o'clock Friday afternoon. The boys will play continuously for 24 hours with a 15 minute break every two hours. The public is invited to drop by and encourage the boys. A twenty-five cent donation will be collected at the door. Proceeds from the game are to go to the Telstar Basketball Fund.

COMMUNITY GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

At 7 p.m., Friday, April 9, a service of worship for everyone in the Bethel area will be held at the Bethel United Methodist Church. The service will be led by ministers and lay people from four local churches: Christ the King Episcopal Mission, the United Methodist Church, the West Bethel Union Church, and the West Parish Congregational Church.

Rev. Norman Rust will present the message, "The Cry of Triumph." Lay persons will read and offer brief thoughts or prayers on the seven last words of Christ, as the congregation ponders the significance of Jesus' death on the cross.

The offering will be sent to Church World Service, an organization that coordinates and carries out mission work for a number of denominations, relieving hunger and disease and helping people to better their lives in many areas of need around the world. Child care will be available during the service.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE AT SUNDAY RIVER

An ecumenical service performed by Reverend Brendon Bass and Reverend Millett Cummings of the West Parish Congregational Church and the Bethel United Methodist Church, respectively, is planned for the top of Barker Mountain at Sunday River Ski Area on Easter Sunday. The sunrise service is set for 7 a.m. and all foot passengers riding to the top of the mountain via the Sunday River chairlift must be at the loading area by 6:30 a.m. The chairlift ride is complimentary and worshippers should dress warmly and wear appropriate boots as the top of the mountain is still snow covered.

A pancake and bacon breakfast will be served beginning at 8 a.m. at the Sunday River Lodge. An Enright Resigns as Water District Supt.

The trustees of the Bethel Water District have received a letter of resignation from Richard Enright, the District's superintendent, which is to be effective May 1, 1982. Mr. Enright began working for the water district on Nov. 15, 1978. He has accepted a position as Superintendent of the Bridgton Water District.

Shortly, the trustees will be advertising the vacancy and reviewing applications for a replacement for Mr. Enright who is the first superintendent to be employed by the District. A number of the current operating practices can be credited to Mr. Enright's suggestions and experience in water district management. During his period of employment, the Bethel Water District has improved its operations from a point in 1978 where it was judged by state officials to be one of the five worst districts in Maine to a level where now it is rated unofficially as being in the top 20%, according to a Water District spokesman.

In 1981, in an amendment to the Bethel Water District's legal charter, the Maine Legislature provided for a permanent superintendent's position as part of the District's organization, the spokesman concluded.

MIDDLE SCHOOL COUNCIL GIVES $100 TO WOODSTOCK SCHOOL

Telstar Middle School Student Council gave $100 to the students at Woodstock Elementary School. The students accepting the money are all members of Woodstock Arts Festival Committee and are planning to use the money to get a special clown to come to the school as part of their festival week, April 26 - 30.

The Student Council raised the money by having a magazine drive. Dede Cox, student council member and former student of Woodstock, thought it would be nice to give the money to the elementary school. Student Council President Jessica Bane, was delighted with the creative use of the money.

The Woodstock Arts Festival involves all the students at the school. It is particularly geared towards individual creativity

Greenwood City —

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

At this time of year I look especially for the changes in birds at my feeder. Have you ever noticed the color change in the beak of the evening grosbeak? There is a turn from neutral horn color toward a delicate green. Redpolls that arrive early and in great numbers become redder and redder as the gray edges of their feathers wear away. The sparrows are scratching for fine seeds, kicking away what ever needs to be moved. With these early birds returning, there is always the old question. Why do they come back so early? They leave us in the fall; they return now. This has been done for eons. We still can't answer the question but we welcome them.

One day this last week, as I walked I threw off my outside coat. It was a mild spring day and the air was full of birds. The "chuck" of the blackbirds could be heard plainly as they flew high over the pond. They were in great haste to reach somewhere.

I inhaled a fresh meadowy, spring odor from the water near the shore. It was like the fragrance of tea to an old tea-drinker.

The swifter section of the pond has begun to unbutton its lacy coat so that standing near I could see the dark bosom of the channel in midst of ice. Bushes on the shore were cropped short by winter's ice. All this of course gave me the urge to fish.

I looked beyond to the blue space of the sky and the forests stretching to the long hump of Overst Mountain. Thoughts from years of out of door came to the surface of my memory.

"Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature's peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow with their own freshness into you and the storms their energy, while cares will drop off like autumn leaves." — John Muir

The spring seemed to be beginning with younger hope than ever. The brooks sang carols and glees to spring. The sinking sound of melting snow, I could hear in the dells by the road sides. Now and then a blade of grass like a green ribbon appeared. The pussy willows stood watch near the swamp.

Seldom do perfect days endure at this time of year but they make us aware of spring's beginning.

As I write this a while later (Saturday) it has begun to snow. It started in clots, huge clumped flakes. Now they are feathery and scattered.

NEWS FROM ADULT AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION

On Tuesday, April 27, the Co-operative Extension Service will offer a special program at Telstar High School at 7 p. m., entitled "How to cook using less sugar, salt, and fat." Stephanie Knight will be the instructor for the free, one-evening program, which has been developed as part of the Extension Service's Nutrition program. Pre-registration is not necessary for this class.

Plans are already in the works for the Adult and Community Education Learning Fair which will be held on May 11 at Telstar. The Machine Embroidery class will exhibit and demonstrate, as will classes in Pottery and Flytying. Many other classes are expected to participate and there will be opportunities for those attending to participate as well as observe. The S.A.D. 44 Special Education program will present a series of activities relating to handicapped awareness, and the Solar Greenhouse will be open for inspection. The evening, which will be preceded by the pot-luck supper, will conclude with the Spring Concert of the Adult and Community Education Chorus. The current issue of the Maine Association for Public School Adult Education Newsletter features an article on the S.A.D. 44 Learning Fair, including a picture of the Aerobic Dance Demonstration from the December fair.

A class in GED Preparation is presently underway on Thursday nights at Telstar High School under the direction of Jim Lanney. Students who are interested in taking the high school equivalency exam take a pre-test which identifies areas which need further study or brush-up work. Such work is prescribed on an individualized basis, and the GED exam is taken when the student and teacher are satisfied that a successful score can be achieved. Five students are presently enrolled in the Thursday section. Enrollment is open and anyone interested in working toward the GED is welcome to join. Call the Adult and Community Education office for information, 824-2136. It is also possible to prepare for the GED at the Thursday evening Adult Learning Center, also held at Telstar.

The sparrows have returned to Upton as well as blackbirds.

For a short time since Nathalie Viens started school mid-year there were no pre-school children in Upton. Now Joseph Michael Bergeron moved in with his parents in Grammie's house which changes the picture. In the interim, Alan Davenport and his parents lived in Upton but they moved to the Magalloway area.

Helen Monague called from Massachusetts one day last week to say hello. She has been in the town where Louise Dickinson Rich grew up and her father owned a newspaper. However, I'm waiting these items while in Bethel and left my notes at home. Rather than be in error, I'll mention the name of city and newspaper next week. It was great to talk with Helen and I spent an evening remembering our mutual past which dates back as far as I can remember.

Roland has been in a position some men might envy as for a short spell his hearing was rather defective and I was unable to talk above a whisper so he had to do the talking while I did the listening.

The Thursday evening prayer meeting was discontinued before it started.

It is nice to have folks coming back from winter homes and houses re-occupied.

Mixing heading gave some folks a good laugh. We need a spring tonic as weather changes from melting and rain back to high winds, zero, and snow and generally unpredictable. Saturday was hazardous traveling with slush and ice and those coming home found the trip slow and risky.

Walter Lord, Tuesday. He was having one of his better days.

Don't forget that Tuesday, April 13, will be the last meeting of the Knight Riders until September. Please attend. It will be at the Stoneham Fire Station. Meeting starts at 7 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crandall of Alfred, called on her sister, Jo Sanderson, Monday. They had been up to Livermore Falls to see her father, Walter Lord, and spent Sunday night with her sister, Kay O'Leary in South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Bickford of West Stoneham, visited at the Sanderson home, Thursday evening.

Gerald Garden is home after a brief stay at the veterans hospital in Togus.

Tree Growth Tax Law

When the Tree Growth Tax was enacted in the early 1970's, it was designed to provide local assessors with an easy method of valuing land based on its productive worth. It also promoted conservation of the land by imposing severe penalties for withdrawing one's land from the program. Theoretically, this would discourage anyone from using the Tree Growth Program merely as a temporary tax dodge for property which they really wanted to utilize or develop in another manner.

A few years after the Program was in place, the Legislature passed a measure which required uniform assessing and 100% valuation of property. The result was that landowners all over the state requested that their property be classified under the Tree Growth Tax Law classification (which replaces property taxes). Because the Law did not clearly provide specific guidelines for eligibility, many local assessors let all types of landowners (who were simply seeking tax relief) get into the Program. In addition, landowners and assessors alike were often unaware or uninformed of the stiff penalties involved when a landowner tried to remove his land from Tree Growth.

To resolve this problem, the Legislature in 1981 tightened up eligibility requirements in an attempt to limit Tree Growth to those landowners truly seeking the production of commercial quality timber. The new law, however, did not explain what would happen to those landowners who were already in the Program but might not qualify in 1982. The Attorney General determined that any parcels of land that could not qualify in 1982 for continued Tree Growth classification would be considered withdrawn and therefore subject to the penalty provisions of the law.

In an attempt to arrive at a more desirable solution, I sponsored a bill this Session which would make certain that landowners who had been properly using their lands to grow trees would not be prohibited from continued classification in 1982 due to circumstances beyond their control, such as local ordinances, deed restrictions and other factors. The bill also required that assessors give all landowners adequate notification of their obligations under the newly amended law and extra time to comply with the law.

As landowners became increasingly aware of the penalty provisions and the fact that the law could be changed again by the Legislature, many expressed a desire to remove their lands altogether from the Tree Growth Program. As a result of mounting interest by small landowners to get out from under the law, a second bill was introduced to allow all landowners under Tree Growth a one-time only chance to withdraw from the Program provided that:

1) they pay all back taxes and interest accrued, and 2) they not alter the use of the land for five more years. The bill is now pending final enactment by the House and Senate.

Although it is difficult to anticipate what new problems may arise in the Tree Growth Program, it seems likely that both of these measures should help to make the Program function a bit more smoothly.

1) they pay all back taxes and interest accrued, and 2) they not alter the use of the land for five more years. The bill is now pending final enactment by the House and Senate.

Although it is difficult to anticipate what new problems may arise in the Tree Growth Program, it seems likely that both of these measures should help to make the Program function a bit more smoothly.

As landowners became increasingly aware of the penalty provisions and the fact that the law could be changed again by the Legislature, many expressed a desire to remove their lands altogether from the Tree Growth Program. As a result of mounting interest by small landowners to get out from under the law, a second bill was introduced to allow all landowners under Tree Growth a one-time only chance to withdraw from the Program provided that:

1) they pay all back taxes and interest accrued, and 2) they not alter the use of the land for five more years. The bill is now pending final enactment by the House and Senate.

The Willing Workers

The monthly meeting of the Willing Workers was held with Olive Davis March 29 with the President, Miriam Morgan conducting the program. There was a discussion on the repairs on the church building and ways of raising money. Plans on a clam dinner at a later date is one thing in the making.

Those attending besides the president and hostess were Mary Fleming, Marta Clements, Clari-bel Poland and visitors Stacy Wilbur and Mrs. Bruce Thurlow's daughter.

The next meeting is April 26 and will be held with the president Miriam Morgan at her home.

The hostess served apple pie and ice cream.

The snow is slowly going but April weather is rather cold and windy for the 1st and 2nd, 16° above and cold wind blowing this morning.

I called on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billings one afternoon this week.

Esther Davis and Barbara Cash have left Florida for home. I presume they have arrived in Maine by now and enjoying a little snow for a change.

Richard Felt took Mr. and Mrs. Lionel O'Blenes and Olive Davis to West Paris Grange where Franklin Grange filled the chairs for the first of 3-point meetings for Norway, Franklin and West Paris Granges. We missed Nestor Tamminen and Katie at the meeting. We hope they are okay before long. Our next meeting will be at Norway where West Paris fills the chairs and Franklin has the program. See you there.

The sap is running quite well at present and the stuff is just delicious. If you haven't tried it, do so. You'll like it.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY HEARS OF PARK STREET HISTORY

Park Street or Kimball Park was the featured topic of the April meeting of the Bethel Historical Society held last Thursday evening in the meeting room of the Bethel Historical Society.

Mrs. Rosalind Chapman described the origins of the street in the 1850's, the development of the land named for Ira Crocker Kimball (1816-1866) who was the guiding spirit in this venture and the building of the 10 houses that today comprise the street. The earliest were constructed by Mr. Kimball in the 1850's with the last ones completed by 1890. Mrs. Chapman listed the owners and residents of each house through the years and related interesting and often humorous details concerning several of them. Slides of the present structures were shown as well as ones made from old photographs.

It was announced that Mrs. Chapman's talk will be the basis for an article in the spring issue of the Society's newsletter, "The Bethel Courier" which will be published next month.

During the business portion of the meeting President Donald G. Bennett announced that the next meeting would be a "Collectibles Night" and anyone having a collection should bring at least one item for display. A film entitled "Archeology in New Hampshire: The Weir Site" will follow the collectibles show. The gift of the month was announced by Mr. Bennett as a book by Gordon M. Day, "The Identity of the St. Francis Indians" which contains several references to Bethel and includes important information on area Indians. It was donated by Vincent York of Phillips who has also given the Society a copy of his book "The Sandy River Valley".

A film "The White Mountains: A Cultural View" which focused on the large number of artists and publicists for that area throughout its long and often colorful history was shown at the close of the meeting. This was followed by refreshments and a social hour.

Walking With Jesus Christ

Happy Easter! Happy Passover—or pesah in Hebrew and pascha in Greek with reference to the paschal lamb. The word Easter is an 8th century Anglo-Saxon adoption to designate the celebration of Christ's resurrection—i.e. raised from the dead to heaven.

The Passover, "The Law of Moses" as commanded by God—Exodus 15—was to lay the foundation of Israel's new life and fellowship with God—to celebrate Israel's preservation from plagues and their deliverance from the bondage of Egypt. This religious festival, among others—was to adorn the Israelites way of life as a constant reminder of God's love for them and their service to him until the arrival of the Messiah—Jesus Christ.

Deut. 18: 15-17 "I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among your brothers"—and as Isaiah wrote in Chapter 53—prophesied—at God's inspiration—the birth and sacrificial death of Christ—in which, he Jesus—would go to the Cross "as a lamb" to take upon himself; once and for all—the sins of all mankind—just as was the—selected from a flock—lamb without blemish—a temporary sin offering (under the law of Moses) for the individual Israelite of the Old Testament.

Hebrews 9:14 — "How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!" 15, "For this reason Christ is the mediator of a new covenant—"

Acts 8:32 — "He was led like a gross vehicle weight. The fee will apply equally to both Maine registered trucks and those registered in other states. It is estimated that this far reaching bill will generate more than $2.6 million in revenues for the state's highways a year.

Before some of us pass this off as inconsequential, we must remember that recent legislation transfers responsibility for a total of 4,244 miles of road formerly maintained by the State to the towns. Bethel will receive on July 1 of this year, an additional 11.3 miles of road for a total number of 72 miles. Road maintenance and improvements for the additional roads can be costly, especially when added to existing expenses. To determine its impact, let's briefly review how and why the transfer came about.

Recent studies showed that the State Aid Program, where towns matched state funds for repairs and maintenance, produced many inequities. The wealthier towns were able to get more State assistance regardless of their road needs. Funds could be used only for construction or reconstruction rather than on other priority needs.

To remedy that problem, certain roads will revert to the towns on July 1, 1982. Also, on that date, communities will be receiving funds from the state for the local road program. Each community will make its own decisions on how the money is used provided it is spent on road purposes. Based on a formula that includes factors for costs of winter plowing, summer maintenance, etc., each community will receive from the State about $2,750 for each mile of road transferred. We may reflect at this point on the necessity for the Highway Use Permit revenues mentioned previously.

Taxpayers should not regard the new funds as a windfall or panacea. Experience shows that yearly maintenance costs per mile of road can easily approach the amount above. Inattention to road conditions, even momentary, often result in unwelcome, heavy repair costs. Bethel's Highway Department plans to continue its evenhanded road maintenance program and add to it a condition inventory process that will enhance the repair and maintenance planning process for the future.

After more than a year of apparent inactivity, the "Thunderbird" project for elderly housing is moving again. On April 7, Director Associates, the project developer, Maine Housing Authority and Gould Academy, completed closing agreements. Construction of the 23 apartment unit housing project is scheduled to begin on Main Street soon.

The Bethel Board of Assessors met in regular session on last Monday evening. The majority of the meeting was spent working on the 1982 assessment. Property cards were reviewed for possible changes and ownership transfers were started. Residents are reminded that the Assessors will be working on Saturday mornings and afternoons. Property owners who started or completed considerable alterations or construction should expect to see the Assessors sometime during the month of April.

The Board of Selectmen will hold their next meeting on Monday, April 12, in the meeting room of the Bethel Savings Bank.

sheep to slaughter, and as a lamb before the shearer is silent, so he did not open his mouth." Jesus was crucified as foretold by Isaiah some 340 years before his birth.

The Christian having professed his need of the Savior—has found a new life in Christ and celebrates the Passover, we call it Easter.

Acts 13:38—"Therefore, my brothers, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you." 39, "Through him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Most of the people in this area missed a real bet this past week end when Gemma Morrill-Dreher, with her stalwart band of amateur thespians and excellent production staff from Telstar, presented their program of one-act plays to a thin group of a couple dozen folks.

We realize that losing the football team was a big blow, and caused quite a stir, but fortunately there still are other activities that provide the students with equally worthwhile and valid learning experiences. A great deal of time, talent, and effort went into those plays, as well as some other poorly attended productions in the past. It's a shame such effort is allowed to go by with so little notice. We have in this case lost not only the enjoyment of two hours of superbly performed entertainment, but also an excellent opportunity to reinforce and support our young people in positive, healthy kinds of activity.

Thank you Gemma, players and supporters for a tough job very well done. We hope you will keep up the good work!!!!

To the Editor:

One of the less visible functions of the chamber of commerce in Bethel is to act as a Better Business Bureau. In this capacity, the chamber receives two types of inquiries from time to time. The first type is a general inquiry about a local firm or individual doing business by him or herself. The second type of inquiry is a complaint or another party seeking credit information. This latter category is important to maintaining the area's reputation of a community of reliable business operations.

As an aid to local businesses, on April 12, Monday, from 7-9 p.m., at Telstar Regional High School, the S.A.D. 44 Adult Education program will sponsor a seminar for small business owners on the subject of collections. The chamber urges as many small business owners as possible to attend this seminar which is free. The seminar

While many retailers are concerned about collecting from individual customers, there is also the aspect of business to business credit to consider. Many supplying businesses involuntarily become lenders, often times without the benefit of interest charges, simply because another business owner failed to secure enough operating capital to meet daily expenses. I hope that this question is raised and discussed on Monday, April 12 because it can quite likely help both creditors and debtors solve mutual problems.

Sincerely,
Donald G. Bennett

To the Editor:

I would like to publicly express my appreciation to the local members and maintainers of the Bethel-Newry-Andover snowmobile network of trails. A number of us, who are cross-country skiers, spent many happy hours this winter enjoying the scenic well-maintained trails from Gratton Notch to Andover and Bethel. The snowmobilers we met were uniformly helpful, considerate and willing to have us share the results of their effort. Floyd Thurston and Lee Swan were especially helpful.

The trail network that these people have prepared and developed is a real asset to the Bethel area.

NEWS FROM THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Again this week the chamber is pleased to announce that two new members have joined the association during the past week. They are: the Bethel office of A. D. Davis and Son, Inc., insurance agents for a variety of insurance programs; Barbara Gasser is the Bethel office manager. Also, Stephen Blake, who has established a solid reputation as a Bethel area painting and papering contractor, is the most recent businessman to join.

At the chamber's board of directors meeting on Tuesday morning, it was decided to communicate with the Superintendent of Schools for S.A.D. 44 on the subject of proposed new school construction in Woodstock. The intent of the community is to place the chamber on record with the school district as encouraging consideration of the use of local contractors and suppliers when the proposed school is built.

The board of directors also endorsed the concept of the chamber working with Cathy Newell, Director of S.A.D. 44 Adult and Community Education on programs that are business related, and to suggest seminar/class topics that reflect questions and problems in the Bethel area business community. The board noted that the first two such courses, small business collections problems on April 12 and the pros and cons of incorporating a sole proprietor business on April 26, address key local questions.

The annual meeting for chamber members and the annual awards banquet will be combined this year. The meeting will take place in June with more details forthcoming.

Over 115 responses have been received during the month of March to the chamber's vacation in Bethel ad in the March issue of Down East magazine.

YOUNG AUTHORS — On Thursday, April 1, the third graders in Shirley Merrill's Crescent Park School class went to the Bethel Library for story-time. The books that were read were written by the students!

As a part of their social studies program, these students are learning how communities begin and develop. They have discussed several places in the world and how they originated: New York City (formerly known as New Amsterdam), Ft. McMurray in Canada, Brasilia in Brazil and Bethel, to name a few.

To correlate social studies with the language program (LLA—Independent Language Activities), Ms. Merrill had children "discover a piece of land" and write a story about how it developed into a community. In doing this the students went through a first draft editing and illustrating. The outcome for each student was a nine page book with a delightful story about some real and imaginary places.

These young authors enjoyed sharing their own book with their class mates as they read their story out loud at the library. Their books will be on display at the Library for two weeks.

AMBULANCE SERVICES IN TRI-COUNTY AREA

Part of a $31,000 grant from the National Department of Transportation will be used to provide communications equipment for seven ambulance services in the Tri-County area.

Russell's Ambulance in Norway; Bethel Ambulance, Tri-County E.M.S., Lewiston; Tri-Town Ambulance, West Paris; Keegan Ambulance, Farmington; Wilton Ambulance; and Mechanic Falls Rescue soon will be installing additional or updated communications in their service.

Harland Robinson, spokesman for the Department of Public Safety, says, "The money will help accomplish the primary goal of having contact between hospitals and all first-run ambulances in the state."

These services and seven others will be reimbursed for needed equipment through the federal funds.

CANCER DRIVE IN BETHEL DURING APRIL

April is the month designated for the Cancer Drive in Bethel. The American Cancer Society receives no Federal monies and needs everyone to help to continue "the conquest against cancer". Reflect upon those whom you know or love that have suffered from the disease of cancer, when the cancer crusade volunteer comes to your door in April. The money raised in Maine benefits Maine. Sixty percent of the funds collected stay in Maine directly, and 40% go to the national office to be returned to the public in the form of printed educational materials, research grants, films and equipment. Thank you for your help.
